

WHEREAS, The state colleges and universities of South Dakota have joined in a cooperative arrangement to further the education of our young people serving in the military; and,

WHEREAS, The United States Army now offers more educational advantages than ever before in affiliation with schools and colleges across the land; and,

WHEREAS, At this time of year when young people are completing one portion of their education and contemplating the furtherance of their schooling; and,

WHEREAS, At this time of year when we pause to remember those who have gone before, we should also look ahead to determine what we want for our future and our children's future;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, GOVERNOR of the State of South Dakota, do proclaim the week of May 20 through June 1, 1974, as

ARMY EDUCATION WEEK

In South Dakota when all our citizens are urged to look upon the United States Army as another opportunity for our young citizens to prepare themselves for their life's work and as an experience to better prepare them for good citizenship in our society.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota,
in Pierre, the Capital City, this 14th day of May, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred Seventy-Four.

RICHARD F. KNEIP, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

LORNA B. HERSETH, SECRETARY OF STATE
